Local Malt Whisky

Situated as we are, straddling the highland fault line we are conveniently placed for a visit to both a Lowland and a Highland Distillery.

Auchentoshan 12yo – Lowland 4.50

Sweet and citrusy with ginger and a whiff of pine needles. Our local malt, distilled in the Clyde valley, just 35 mins away in Clydebank, and the only triple distilled malt in Scotland.

Glengoyne 10yo - Highland 4.00 (12 yo 4.50)

Local malt with a smooth taste with mix of fresh green apples, toffee and a hint of nuttiness. The Distillery is 45 mins drive to the east of Loch Lomond and situated near the village of Killearn.

Loch Lomond - Highland 4.00

The palette is sweet, smokey, with hints of finest Madeira wine and has a long, mellow finish, with echoes of a raisiny Christmas pudding.

Lowland

The Lowlands region lies south of an imaginary line drawn from the Clyde estuary to the Tay estuary. Whiskies from the Lowlands tend to be soft and light in character. They often display very malty, grassy characteristics and subtle delicate aromas

Glenkinchie 12yo 5.50

Distilled in the Pentland hills above Edinburgh. Light and mellow with grassy, sweet notes.

Highland Region

Moving north takes us in to the Highland region. The region includes most of the rest of Scotland, with the exception of Islay and Campbeltown. Generalisations about the Highland region are less valid, as its whiskies will range from dry to sweet and some even have a touch of smoke and peat.

Ancnoc 12yo 4.50

Soft and aromatic with a hint of lemon and honey with a smooth finish.

Ardmore 4.50

Full and rich with a unique highland peat-smoke tone, followed by a smooth but subtle sweetness.

Connoisseurs Choice from Aultmore Distillery 5.50

Sweet and creamy with hints of sherried wood & ripped summer berries.

Dalmore 12yo 5.50

Silky smooth malt with depths of sweet orange and spices.

Dalwhinnie 15yo 5.50

Heather, honey and vanilla notes and a sweet citrusy finish.

Glenglassaugh 4.50

Robust in style, sweet and fruity with sherry notes.

Glengoyne 10yo 4.00 (12 yo 4.50)

Local malt with a smooth taste with mix of fresh green apples, toffee and a hint of nuttiness.

Glenlivet 12yo 4.50

Subtle peatiness. Slightly sweet and fruity, with vanilla notes.

Glenmorangie Original 4.50

Fragrant floral fruits with delicate honey wood notes combine in this quintessential single malt.

Oban 14yo - Highland 6.75

Autumn fruits with sweet spiciness followed by a slightly smoky dry finish.

Old Pulteney 3.50

Sweet and spicy with hints of coconut, lemon & oranges, well balanced full bodied with a long lasting finish.

Speyside

Technically Speyside lies within the Highland region. It is home to approximately half of Scotland's malt whisky distilleries. This small area of land located to the north west of Aberdeen produces mellow, sweet, and particularly fruity malt whiskies.

Aberlour 10yo 4.50

Sweet and spicy with a hint of mint and autumn fruits.

Balvenie Signature 12yo 5.50

Packed with flavours from honeyed fruits and sherry to hints of spice, smoky oak and vanilla.

Glenfiddich Signature Malt 12yo 4.50

Rich and fruity with a slightly smoky aftertaste.

The MacPhail's Collection from Glenrothes Distillery 4.50

Sweet, vanilla tablet and honey balanced with a marmalade bitterness.

Macallan Double Cask Gold 5.50

Maturation in selected Sherry Oak casks creates a sweet, woody malt.

Singleton of Dufftown 4.50

A key part of the Bell's blend, this is sweet and fruity with hints of citrus and blackcurrant.

Tamdhu 4.50

Bursting with fruit and spice – gently yielding to toffee and sherry oak with the merest wisp of peat smoke.

Islands

Located in the Inner Hebrides, the small Island of Islay is often called 'Whisky Island' given its concentration of eight distilleries. The island produces very distinct malts, generally heavily peated and smoky in taste.

Ardbeg 10yo 5.50

Intense peat flavour together with zingy lemon and lime followed by a gentle creamy, but smokey and sweet aftertaste.

Bowmore 12yo 5.50

Lemon & honey balanced by peaty smokiness with mellow finish.

Bunnahabhain 12yo 5.50

The taste starts with a light fruit and nut appeal that leads to a spectacular malty sweetness.

The MacPhail's Collection from Bunnahabhain Distillery 5.50

Sweet and creamy with orange zest, grapefruit and a milk chocolate edge.

Highland Park 12yo 3.50

Gentle smoke and heather balanced with slight sweetness.

Lagavulin 16yo 6.75

Dry, smoky and woody with hints of seaweed and touch of subtle sweetness.

Laphroaig 4.50

The typical Islay malt- rich with peat smoke and touch of medicinal sweetness.

Isle of Jura 10yo 3.50

Crisp and fresh with almond and spice notes.

Connoisseurs Choice from the Isle of Mull 8.75

Sweet with lime & orange flavours completed by a lingering smoky edge.

Talisker 10yo 5.50

Smells like the seaside, tastes warm and delicately smoky with a pepper finish.
